

Just say Hires
if you want the genuine
- in bottles for the home
at soda fountains and on draught

WE ADVERTISE EXACTLY AS IT IS

TIME FOR A PALM BEACH SUIT

We are bound to have hot weather and why suffer with the heat when you can be comfortable in a Palm Beach Suit.

They come in dark shades as well as light and a variety of patterns—

$15—$18—$20

Murphy & McGarry
207 Main Street

DELCO-LIGHT

The complete electric light and power plant

Lights the barn. Makes night work easy. Safe, economical, convenient.

CARL W. BROWN
Room 3 and 4
Uncas National Bank Building
Telephone 348

FUNERAL

Mrs. Maurice Connell.

Funeral services for Mary J. O'Sullivan, widow of Maurice Connell, were held from her late home at 104 Summit street on Friday morning, followed by a requiem mass in St. Patrick's church at which Rev. Myles P. Galvin was celebrant. There was a large number of friends and relatives present and many beautiful floral tributes. At the offertory Mrs. F. L. Farrell rendered De Profundis and as a waiting hymn she sang Abide With Me. The bearers were James Donohue, John Barry, John Fogarty, Thomas Sheehan, Michael J. Donovan and Francis Williams. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery. Hourigan Brothers were in charge of the funeral arrangements.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Thomas Foley.

Catherine Donovan, widow of Thomas Foley, died at her home at 16 Roath street on Friday morning at 8 o'clock after a two months' illness. Mrs. Foley was born in County Cork, Ireland, and came to Norwich when a young woman. She was a devoted member of St. Mary's church and all the affiliated organizations. She was united in marriage with Thomas Foley of this city many years ago.

Her husband died several years ago and she is survived by one son, Daniel E. Foley, of this city, one daughter, Miss Mary E. Foley of Norwich, and three grandchildren. There is a sister, Mrs. Ellen Hartle of Norwich and a brother, Richard Donovan of Whitinsville, Mass.

A missing suspender button often leaves a man in suspense.

Selmer

F. N. CASH, Agent

Norwich Conn.

192nd DIVIDEND

Office of The Norwich Savings Society
Norwich, Conn., June 5, 1920.

The Directors of this Society have declared out of the earnings of the current six months a semi-annual dividend at the rate of FOUR PER CENT. per annum, payable to depositors entitled thereto on and after July 15, 1920.

COSTELLO LIPPI, Treasurer.

NEW SHOES FROM OLD ONES

By our new factory system.
WOODYEAR SHOE REPAIRING CO.
85 Franklin Street
NIXO DI PALMA, Prop.

WHEN YOU WISH to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of this Bulletin.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Saturday, June 26, 1920.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at $55 this evening. The season of piazza weather has arrived at last. Daboll's Almanac predicts a stretch of hot, dry weather.

It is claimed that in one June rain fell every one of the 30 days. The census of Norwich State Hospital this week shows 1358 patients. The next communion of the United Congregational church, the last for this church-year, is Sunday, July 4.

Fancy shad 25 cents a pound today at Church Bros.—adv.

A fresh supply of Gluten Flour at the Broadway Grocery Co., 49 Broadway.—adv.

Norwich hotels and restaurants had a rush day Friday, boat race motor parties adding hundreds to the normal patronage.

From Plainfield, Scoutmaster Walter Lathrop and the Scout troop accompanied by Rev. A. W. Barwick are camping at Beach Pond this week.

A special republican committee to complete final arrangements for organizing a republican club in Rockville has been appointed by the republican town committee.

John Connell, formerly of Norwich and Mrs. Connell are in Central Village at the home of Mr. Connell's sister, Mrs. William Broadhead. Mr. Connell is ill with asthma.

Rev. E. W. Potter, field secretary of the Connecticut Temperance Union, is to give a temperance address in the Toland Congregational church on Sunday morning, July 4.

A very little field corn has been planted in the Masham district, owing largely to the wet condition of the fields. P. A. Moore generally has a large acreage of silo corn planted at this time of year.

The five days of Chautauqua on Moose school grounds proved a big success, and the forty guardians who took the financial responsibility of the Chautauqua have been acclaimed by the entire town.

500 lbs. fresh caught flatfish received today direct from Narragansett. Special for 10 cents lb. 3 lbs. 25 cents, etc. full line other choice fish, lobsters, etc. at Powers Bros.—adv.

Blanks on which all state departments and institutions are to make their appropriation requests for the period from July 1, 1921, to July, 1922, were sent out this week from the offices of the state board of finance.

St. Paul's Episcopal church, Plainfield, Conn., held a service on Sunday, June 21, for the purpose of raising money for the relief of the victims of the earthquake in Haiti. The service was administered by Rev. E. W. Potter.

Hardware men from this section will attend first annual convention of the national association of Winchester clubs which will be held at the factory in New Haven June 28, to July 1. It is expected that between 2000 and 3000 will attend.

The United States civil service commission announces for July 21 an examination for electrical engineer, male, under 45 years of age, for a vacancy at the United States naval ordnance plant at South Charleston, W. Va. at $14 per diem.

Jane Withnough, 87, widow of President Timothy Dwight, of Yale—the latter a native of Norwich—who died Nov. 19, 1919, left an estate of $400,000, of which $38,162 is taxable in New York. It was announced Friday. All goes to relatives.

Ground shell for fowls and chickens at Church Bros.—adv.

News received Friday from Dr. F. S. Wilcox, superintendent of Norwich State Hospital, who with his family is motoring to California located them in New Mexico where the days are hot but the nights almost as freezing temperature.

Former Norwich residents, Captain and Mrs. Richardson Jewell, who have been in Danbury for the past year, where they have had charge of the Salvation Army work are returning from that organization and will leave Danbury Sunday for New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spellman of Somers, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Pauline C. Spellman to Russell W. Potter of Willimantic. Miss Spellman was a member of the graduating class of the Willimantic State Normal and Training school.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Rev. Arthur Goodenough, father of Rev. G. Goodenough of Leyard, who received the honorary degree of D.D. from Yale this week is a graduate of Yale college, academic class of 1862, and Yale Divinity School, 1865 and has completed nearly 50 years in the pastoral office of a Congregational church at Winchester, Conn.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Rev. Arthur Goodenough, father of Rev. G. Goodenough of Leyard, who received the honorary degree of D.D. from Yale this week is a graduate of Yale college, academic class of 1862, and Yale Divinity School, 1865 and has completed nearly 50 years in the pastoral office of a Congregational church at Winchester, Conn.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

Local contributors learn that the Near East Relief, formerly the committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief, at Madison headquarters at 1 Madison avenue, New York, has announced that $15,295.32 has been raised by the organization between July 1, 1919 and June 15, 1920.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Safford and family of Canterbury were recent Norwich visitors.

Mrs. George M. Lewis of Watertown, Mass. is the guest of Mrs. Charles Stamm of Ann street.

Miss Alma Potter of Brooklyn, Conn. is the guest of her grandparents in this city for a short visit.

Miss Vera Palmer and Sterling E. Watts motored here Friday, stopping to see the Yale and Harvard boat race.

Ruth and Phyllis Ballou of Norwich are visiting at the home of their grandfather Samuel Collins in Central Village.

Clifton X. Draper of Schenectady has been spending a short time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Draper of River avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Goldfaden and family have closed their home in this city and are at Ocean beach for the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. Emma J. Tubbs of the East Side left Wednesday for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Ida M. Lord of Maple Knoll farm, Enfield, Mass.

Rev. William H. Bahr, of Norwich, district superintendent, was in this city Friday night to hold the first quarterly conference at the Methodist church.

Miss Gladys Wilbur, who has just graduated from Willimantic Normal school and is spending the summer at her home in Plainfield, plans to teach in Farmington next fall.

Miss Marie Stamm of Ann street has returned after spending several days with Mrs. Florence Beebe of Hadymine. While there she attended the reception given by the senior class of the Deep River High school.

Harvard wins! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

Harvard won! Poor old Eli! It was a typical boat race crowd that gathered around the finish line at Bartlett's cove Friday afternoon just as the warm June sun was sinking slowly to rest behind the green and picturesque hills that majestically guard the Thames on its way to the Sound. These majestic guardians in their stately majesty were rocked by the cheering of the thousands of spectators who had gathered to witness the Harvard-Yale boat race.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS CONVENE HERE

WM. BASELEY
(Department Commander)

Over 75 delegates, representing practically every U. S. W. V. camp in the state are in Norwich attending the sixteenth annual state encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans, which opened Friday evening at the town hall.

Proceeding the business session at the town hall the veterans of '98 headed by Tubbs' band and Company F. Conn. in the state are in Norwich attending the sixteenth annual state encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans, which opened Friday evening at the town hall.

Proceeding the business session at the town hall the veterans of '98 headed by Tubbs' band and Company F. Conn. in the state are in Norwich attending the sixteenth annual state encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans, which opened Friday evening at the town hall.

Proceeding the business session at the town hall the veterans of '98 headed by Tubbs' band and Company F. Conn. in the state are in Norwich attending the sixteenth annual state encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans, which opened Friday evening at the town hall.

Proceeding the business session at the town hall the veterans of '98 headed by Tubbs' band and Company F. Conn. in the state are in Norwich attending the sixteenth annual state encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans, which opened Friday evening at the town hall.

Proceeding the business session at the town hall the veterans of '98 headed by Tubbs' band and Company F. Conn. in the state are in Norwich attending the sixteenth annual state encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans, which opened Friday evening at the town hall.

Proceeding the business session at the town hall the veterans of '98 headed by Tubbs' band and Company F. Conn. in the state are in Norwich attending the sixteenth annual state encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans, which opened Friday evening at the town hall.